Sec. 5. The public officers compensation commission is established.

Sec. 6. (a) The commission consists of the following members:

- (1) Two (2) members appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The members appointed under this subdivision may not be members of the same political party.
- (2) Two (2) members appointed by the president pro tempore of the senate. The members appointed under this subdivision may not be members of the same political party.
- (3) Two (2) members appointed by the governor. The members appointed under this subdivision may not be members of the same political party.
- (4) Two (2) members appointed by the chief justice of the supreme court of Indiana. The members appointed under this subdivision may not be members of the same political party.
- (5) One (1) member appointed by the chief judge of the court of appeals of Indiana.

(b) The following may not be a commission member:

- (1) A public officer.
- (2) A public employee.
- (3) An individual who has a pecuniary interest in the salary of a public officer. For purposes of this subdivision, an individual has a pecuniary interest in the salary of a public officer if an increase in the salary of a public officer will result in an ascertainable increase in the income or net worth of the individual.

Sec. 7. (a) The term of a commission member begins on the later

of the following:

(1) July 1 after the member is appointed.

(2) The day the member accepts the member's appointment.

(b) The term of a commission member expires on July 1 of the third year after the year the member's term begins.

(c) A member may be reappointed to serve a new term.

Sec. 8. (a) If there is a vacancy on the commission, the public officer who appointed the member whose position is vacant shall appoint an individual to fill the vacancy.

(b) The member appointed under this section shall fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Sec. 9. (a) Before July 1 of each year, the chairman of the legislative council shall appoint one (1) member to be chair of the commission.

(b) The member appointed as chair of the commission serves as chair beginning July 1 after appointment.

(c) A member of the commission may be reappointed as chair of the commission.

Sec. 10. Five (5) commission members constitute a quorum. The affirmative votes of at least five (5) commission members are necessary for the commission to take official action other than to adjourn or to meet to hear reports or testimony.

Sec. 11. The commission shall meet at the call of the chair and at other times as the commission considers necessary.

Sec. 12. Each member of the commission is entitled to the following:

(1) The salary per diem provided under IC 4-10-11-2.1(b).

(2) Reimbursement for traveling expenses as provided under IC 4-13-1-4.

(3) Other expenses actually incurred in connection with the member's duties as provided in the state policies and procedures established by the Indiana department of administration and approved by the budget agency.

Sec. 13. The legislative services agency shall provide administrative support for the commission. At the request of the legislative services agency, the state personnel department or the Indiana judicial center established by IC 33-13-14-2 shall assign staff to provide research and other support to assist the legislative services agency in providing administrative support to the commission.

Sec. 14. The legislative services agency may contract with consultants on behalf of the commission as the commission considers necessary to implement this chapter.

Sec. 15. Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, the commission is subject to the rules of the legislative council.

Sec. 16. The commission shall make reports to the general assembly as required by this chapter or by the legislative council.

Sec. 17. The commission shall meet at least one (1) time not later than April 1 of each even-numbered year to do the following:

(1) Receive information relating to the salaries of public officers.

(2) Consider recommendations for suitable salaries for public officers.

(3) Take testimony relating to the salaries of public officers.

Sec. 18. (a) When determining a recommendation for a suitable salary for a public officer, the commission may consider the following:

(1) The responsibilities of the office.

(2) The educational background required or desired for an individual who holds the office.

(3) The skills required or desired for the office.

(4) The experience required or desired for the office.

(5) The time required or desired to be spent to fulfill the duties of the office.

(6) The opportunity or lack of opportunity that an individual who holds the office has to earn other income.

(7) The salaries paid to government officers in other states that have comparable duties and authority.

(8) The salaries paid to comparable professionals in the private sector in Indiana and other comparable states based on the responsibility and discretion required from or desired in an individual who holds the office.

(9) The increase in the cost of living in Indiana since the most recent increase in the salary of the public officer.

(10) The benefits other than salaries provided to public officers.

(11) The ability to attract and retain qualified individuals to be public officers.

(12) The interests and welfare of the public.

(13) The financial ability of the state to meet the costs of salaries recommended by the commission.

(14) Other factors the commission considers relevant.

(b) The commission may give the weight to the factors described in subsection (a) that the commission considers appropriate.

(c) The commission may make recommendations to the general assembly concerning benefits other than salaries.

Sec. 19. (a) The commission shall make written recommendations to the:

(1) legislative council; and

(2) budget committee;

concerning suitable salaries for public officials not later than September 1 of each even-numbered year.

(b) When making recommendations, the commission shall make a separate recommendation, including a recommendation for no adjustment of salary, for each separate public officer listed in section 4 of this chapter.

Sec. 20. A commission recommendation does not take effect unless enacted by the general assembly.

Sec. 21. A bill containing salary adjustments for public officers may not contain salary adjustments both for public officers in the executive branch and for public officers in the judicial branch.

Sec. 22. There is appropriated to the legislative services agency from the state general fund money necessary for the operation of the commission.

Sec. 23. Notwithstanding IC 1-1-1-8, the provisions of this chapter are not severable.

SECTION 2. [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE] (a) As used in this SECTION, "commission" refers to the public officers compensation commission established by IC 2-5-1.5-5, as added by this act.

(b) The appointing authorities shall appoint the commission members not later than July 1, 2002.

(c) Notwithstanding IC 2-5-1.5-7, as added by this act, the term of a commission member appointed under subsection (b) expires as follows:

(1) The term of a member appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives expires as follows:

(A) The term of one (1) member expires July 1, 2005.
